NINETEEN HUNDRED SEVENTY

Hinds Community College District

Hinds Community College District

An abstract artwork featuring a dense, chaotic network of glowing orange and yellow lines against a black background. The lines vary in thickness and brightness, creating a sense of depth and movement. Some lines form distinct, fan-like shapes, while others are thin and wispy. The overall effect is reminiscent of a microscopic view of a complex material or a stylized representation of a natural phenomenon like a nebula or a coral reef.

Reality

Dreams

We begin our search for elusive reality
encompassed in chaos

The sunrise is like unto our lives
Growing into the glory of adulthood
And fading into the oblivion of death

We search
Still in darkness

Through the world of the intelligentsia

The dawning of progress
Mirrored in our minds

Empowers us to acknowledge what we are

But we ARE young
And because we are we cry late at night for memories
Lost in growing away from the magic of youth

And so we seek a respite from life
All the while discovering ourselves anew . . .

Heil Reality! you are exposed

You exist not in the posh and beauty of antebellum elegance
But rather in the harsh
Truths
Surroundings
And individuals of our world

But we see you, Reality, in still more . . .

A lone cross
A mother and child
The beauty of a sunset

And hope in a future which is built upon the foundations of our dreams

In Dedication

Challenging and yet rewarding . . . he finds his job one of great importance in the role of progress for Hinds. Long hours of planning and designing for the future expansion and growth of the college for the needs of the student today are his contribution to progress.

Expansion of the college today is due to his foresight, dedication, and energy for the betterment of our institution.

He has been instrumental for the construction of such buildings as the Fine Arts, Greaves Hall, and the New Girls' Dormitory and others that are still in the planning stages.

Serving as an instructor, then as a dean, and now as an administrator, he has worked with students through the years, guiding them toward their goals for the future in hopes of strengthening their knowledge of our world.

The Eagle Staff takes great pride in dedicating the 1970 EAGLE to Administrative Assistant, Rosser Wall.

Editor's Message

In your hands you are now holding the 1970 EAGLE. We, the annual staff, have attempted to capture the events, the emotions, and the experiences which have been a part of our world this year at Hinds. As the pages of this book are turned, it is our desire that they present to you innumerable recollections of the past year.

I wish to express my deepest appreciation to all who took part in the making of this yearbook. Special thanks are to be given to Bob Hodges for his needed advice and instruction; to Campus Security for letting us in the dorms after we had worked late to meet the final deadline; and to my staff members for their dependability, efforts, endurance, and time. Without the assistance of these and the cooperation of the students and faculty of Hinds the 1970 EAGLE would not have been possible.

If you can recall fond memories of your year at Hinds as you turn through the pages of your 1970 EAGLE, then we the staff will feel we have achieved our purpose.
